H.B. 87, Smoke Free Enclosed Public Places, sponsored by Rep. Lori Millin (R-Cheyenne), failed to be introduced. The vote was 31 ayes - 28 nays - 1 excused. Since this is the budget session, bills must receive two-thirds vote to be introduced, which would have required at least 40 ayes votes. Rep. Millin indicated she is interested in trying again during the 2009 general session.

Numerous other bills also failed including a bill that would have expanded the long term care access program from last session; a bill removing restrictions from stopping drivers not wearing their seatbelts; licensure of denturists; prohibiting the use of wireless communication devices while driving and authorizing mental injury under the workers compensation program. A bill to raise the tax on beer and earmark the revenues for substance abuse programs failed to be introduced.

The projected budget surplus, projected revenues over appropriations, is much smaller this year than in past sessions. Proposals tied to large new, ongoing expenditures have been scrutinized very carefully. The Governor and legislative leadership have cautioned against creating and funding new programs.

The bill to extend the program to pay hospitals for unreimbursed trauma care was introduced and is being heard in House Labor Committee.

A proposal is moving forward, H.B. 38 Medicaid Provider Reimbursements, to direct the Department of Health to establish a new reimbursement schedule for providers of Medicaid services. Reimbursement schedules would be reviewed in conjunction with the biennial budget every two years. Evidently, some service reimbursement schedules have gone years without being updated.
